How to use this journal

Hi, welcome in.

This journal is for anyone who wants to grow without the pressure of being perfect. Thirty days is long enough to notice real change, and short enough to actually finish. Go slow, be honest with yourself, and celebrate the small wins along the way.

with love, Risti · Growish Club

Your 30-day flow

Day 0
SET UP

Write your intention, choose 3–10 small habits and why they matter, and pick a kind reward. Then copy your habits into the Habit Tracker.

Before You Begin · p.03

Every day
CHECK IN

Fill a dot for every habit you did, colour today on the Mood Tracker, and complete one Daily Check-in block. Two minutes is enough.

Habit Tracker p.04 · Mood Tracker p.05 · Daily Check-in p.06

Every 7 days
REVIEW

Look back at your week: your moods, your habit score, your wins and what felt hard. Choose one focus for the next week.

Weekly Review · p.07

Day 30
REFLECT

Count your days for each habit, colour your consistency bars, and decide which habits come with you into the next 30 days.

30 Days Later · p.08

Print or go digital

- Print on A4 paper, actual size (no scaling).
- Print the Daily Check-in 15× (2 days per page) and the Weekly Review 4×.
- Print every other page once.
- Prefer digital? Open this PDF in GoodNotes, Notability or any PDF app and write right on it.

Little reminders

- Start smaller than you think. Tiny habits last.
- Missed a day? That is normal. Just try not to miss two in a row.
- Check in at the same time each day, like right before bed.
- Track honestly. Patterns matter more than perfect streaks.

DAY 0

Before you begin

01

Pick your habits

Choose 3–10 small, doable habits. Start smaller than you think.

02

Check in daily

Fill a habit dot, colour your mood, jot a few lines. Two minutes is enough.

03

Reflect weekly

Notice patterns, not perfection. Missed a day? Just never miss two.
